Business Philosophy: The mission of Rinek, Inc. is to partner with businesses desiring the ideal work space or individuals who are seeking to build or renovate a home that is a match to their desires, personality and lifestyle. Blending state-of-the-art technology with quality craftsmanship and exacting attention to detail, Charles and Jeanne Rinek give life and energy to each project, turning clients' thoughts and ideas to exquisite reality, routinely exceeding expectations. The company's reputation has, at its foundation, almost three decades of delivering projects on time and within budget.

The Process: Discovery: During an initial meeting, conducted in person, by phone or via email, the Rinek team will conduct a fact-finding session to get to know the client and the scope of vision. This service is complimentary.

Concept: Within weeks of the discovery session, the Rinek team will present a conceptual floorplan based on customized needs or utilizing a plan rendition selected from the company's extensive portfolio. For new home construction, an agreed-upon portfolio of personalized features will accompany the proposed luxury home floor plan. This service is also complimentary.

Design: Assuming the partnership moves forward, the Rinek team will prepare a contract which, once signed, triggers the move to detailed drawings and the process kicks into high gear.

Milestone Meetings: At appropriate junctures along the way, the two parties will meet to discuss progress and make decisions on details, including interior and exterior appointments.

Delivery: Based on project parameters, the client may expect delivery of a finished home within nine to 12 months of the discovery session. Commercial project delivery varies based on parameters of the particular assignment.
